Oliver Dragojević and his band have thrilled fans with passionate performances of his huge catalog of hits. Oliver rose to stardom in his native Croatia in the 1970’s via his performances at the Split Festival, Croatia’s premier music festival. Specializing in the folk styles of the Dalmatia region, Dragojević’s early work closely reflected his Croatian heritage, as heard on Dalmatian anthems like “Galeb i ja” and “Skalinada.” Let’s show the kind of support that New Orleans has to offer to one of our favorite Croatian entertainers by selling out this event. Help get the word out and buy your tickets today!

2015, at the Marriott Hotel, 555 Canal Street, New Orleans, from 7:00 pm till Midnight. Back by popular demand is the Croatian band from Canada, Vis Croate. There will be a buffet dinner and five-hour open bar.

We are privileged to once again be hosting the Croatian Ambassador to the US, Joško Paro, as well as our Consul General, Jelena Grčić Polić. We will be raffling some great prizes including four tickets to the Oliver concert on May 6—center stage, row 11.
